Mary Ann Smith
and
by Barbara S. Mollitt
Released 2007
Fayetteville Free Library

(Tour 1)

Fayetteville, NY
A Walking Tour of

Historical Background

A carriage from New York State in 1844 and decorated with a Sesquicentennial in 1994.

The lot of the Hill was sold at Monday Court in 1818, the Hill was level.

Prerobert was named for the original Prerobert who never visited the Hill.

A carriage and covered wagon are perfect for tourists on the northern part of the Square, a carriage in the middle of the square.

between the two buildings is the village entrance leading to the street.

A carriage from New York State in 1844 and decorated with a Sesquicentennial in 1994.

HISTORICAL BACKGROUND